Salem Art Association & Bush House Museum

The Salem Art Association (SAA) has been bringing the arts and arts education to Salem and the surrounding communities for more than 100 years. From providing art teachers for local school systems to artists lecture series to free art exhibitions in the Bush Barn Art Center & Annex (and everything in between), SAA works to create a vibrant arts community that harnesses the power of the arts and heritage to expand creativity and improve lives.

We also believe that art can generate thoughtful reflection and conversation, while fostering growth and healing across our community. Since the pandemic, SAA has highlighted and supported artists across a diverse range of experiences, perspectives, and studio practices. We are working to ensure that artists and communities that are historically underrepresented are welcomed and celebrated in our galleries.

As caretakers of the Museum, SAA has a special responsibility to look closely at the legacy of Asahel Bush, and to acknowledge and condemn his racism.

We are currently working to re-examine the history, artifacts, and art being presented at the Museum in a way that is inclusive and intentional, and that allows the stories of other early Oregonians to be heard, many for the first time.

If you want to support this work – and our other programs like community arts education – please consider becoming a member of SAA. There are several different levels of membership that can fit any budget. <https://salemart.org/membership/>

FREE GUIDED TOURS OF THE BUSH HOUSE MUSEUM

Enjoy a free 45-minute tour of the Museum and Gallery this weekend every half hour from 12:30 to 3:00 p.m., Friday and Saturday, and 12:30 to 2:30 p.m. on Sunday.

Built in 1878 for the Bush Family, this historic house museum features original furnishings, fixtures, and fine art. A second-floor gallery celebrates Oregon's rich Black history with paintings by Jeremy Okai Davis.

Tour tickets are available at the Bush Barn Art Center on a first-come basis. Visitors will enter through the front door and exit through the Library. The Bush House Museum is operated by the Salem Art Association on behalf of the City of Salem.

Welcome to the 75th Annual Salem Art Fair & Festival

It's hard to believe this is the 75th anniversary of the Salem Art Fair & Festival! We know the Art Fair is such an important part of our city's cultural life because so many of you told us how much you missed it when we paused the in-person Art Fair during the pandemic.

A lot has changed over the past 75 years, including this year's move to September. The extreme heat the past two summers made it nearly impossible to continue to safely host this event in July. We hope our new dates in mid-September will mean everyone will have a much more enjoyable time when they take in the sights and sounds of the Salem Art Fair & Festival!

We've also had to move from our traditional location under the majestic Oregon White Oaks to help safeguard the delicate ecosystem of the park, which is also the home of the Bush Barn Art Center & Annex and the Bush House Museum which SAA operates. Our new footprint helps protect the trees and other native flora and fauna while still taking advantage of the shade from the trees and the beautiful meadow area of the park.

One thing that hasn't changed in 75 years is our commitment to bringing the best art and music from around the region and the country here to Salem. This year is no exception – we've got every type of artwork you could ever want represented by our nearly 200 artists, and musicians and performers from almost every musical genre.

There is something for everyone this year at the Salem Art Fair & Festival!

About Our Poster Artist

Sophie Barlow is an artist and digital illustrator born and raised in Salem, Oregon. Sophie has considered herself an artist since she was a little kid. She attributes much of her motivation to pursue a career in the arts to the Salem Art Fair & Festival. Sophie has been going to the Art Fair since she was in a stroller. In fact, she hangs ornaments that she made at the fair nearly 20 years ago on her Christmas tree every year.

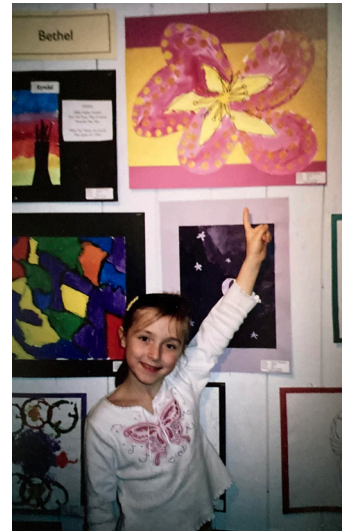

Sophie began her illustration journey working for student publications while earning her BA in Art and Technology at the University of Oregon. She found that she loved incorporating story telling into her digital pieces and has pursued this journey ever since. Most recently Sophie illustrated a children's book titled Oakley, Mostly Good and has been creating editorial illustrations through her internship with NPR's Next Generation Radio.

Even though much of her work is digital, Sophie still takes time to practice with the traditional mediums she grew up learning, such as drawing and painting. Sophie enjoys finding ways to incorporate multiple mediums across her creation process. In her personal work, Sophie explores themes of juxtaposition, destruction, and self-reflection through a multimedia media collage process.

When Sophie is not drawing up illustrations, you can find her hiking, playing cards, sipping lattes at the Gov Cup, or traveling. Sophie loves to chat (her friends and family often call her a "yapper") and is always looking for a new friend to share stories with.

*Sophie in first grade

THE SUGAR BEETS

Friday – 8:30 p.m.

For over 34 years the Sugar Beets have been bringing people to their feet with their blend of traditional music and contemporary original songwriting. Moving effortlessly from bluegrass, or Celtic and old-time fiddle music, to Motown, country, swing and pop, the sound is fresh and inspiring. The eight-piece ensemble features two female lead vocalists in lock step harmony, fiddle, mandolin, acoustic guitar, stand up bass, drums and percussion, and frequent guest and renowned master of the woodwinds Paul Biondi. The songwriting is equally eclectic, moving from touching to hilarious as the band shifts genres. Their high energy acoustic dance music has become the soundtrack for countless outdoor celebrations, rites of passage, kickoffs rallies, and tributes throughout the Pacific Northwest.

THE DADDIES

Saturday – 8:30 p.m.

In recent years, the Daddies have become the kind of band that you'd want to book if you were throwing a soirée at the Gatsby mansion. Penning elegant, lush, pitch perfect arrangements of much of the great American songbook – from Cole Porter to Frank Sinatra – the Daddies have surprised many, especially those familiar with them from the early '90s. Most people likely associate the band with an image of spray painted vans careening across the US as an iconoclastic, misfit part of an already marginalized punk/ska scene.

As of late, however, the Daddies put together a number of excellent swing/jazz sit-down theatre shows, each tailored to a different era of swing music: a "Jazz Age Lawn Party" consisting of roaring 20s and Cotton Club-era material, a swanky "Live at the Sands" tribute to the Rat Pack, and a World War II "Christmas Canteen" show that is part Tiki, part Benny Goodman, and comes across like a radio broadcast from Guadalcanal circa 1942. The sheer craftsmanship and professional attention to detail in these performances have shed new light on this criminally underestimated band.

CEILI OF THE VALLEY

Friday – noon; Saturday – 10:30 a.m.;
Sunday – 9:30 a.m.

Céilí of the Valley promotes Celtic culture through music and dance. The group has weekly dance classes and monthly ceilis (dances) with live music. They perform at festivals, schools, elder care facilities, private events, and host an annual Samhain Celtic New Year Festival in October.

SAMAZAMA KOTO/CELLO DUO

Friday – 1:30 p.m.

SamaZama Koto/Cello Duo is a collaboration of the Koto (a Japanese traditional musical instrument) played by Masumi Timson and the Cello played by Joseph Harchanko. "Samazama" is the Japanese word for variety. The SamaZama Duo combines the esoteric nature of traditional and contemporary

Main Stage Performers, continued

Japanese music with tango, jazz, blues, and western classical music, blending the instruments and music of Eastern and Western cultures in a moving and uncommon musical synthesis.

VENTUS WOODWIND QUINTET

Friday – 3:00 p.m.; Saturday – noon

The Ventus Woodwind Quintet play a varied set of woodwind quintet music from classical to pop.

TUESDAY STRING BAND

Friday – 4:30 p.m.

Tuesday String Band is a bluegrass trio of young music professionals who met through the music program at Western Oregon University. They love entertaining crowds with fast pickin', humorous onstage banter, and string band versions of music from a wide variety of styles. They have performed in numerous Oregon cities and are all working on building careers in music performance and music education. They're on a special mission to keep the great string band tradition alive and relevant to the younger generations right here in the beautiful Willamette Valley.

KELLY THIBODEAUX & THE ETOUFFEE BAND

Friday – 6:30 p.m.

Led by the fiddler Mr. Kelly Thibodeaux of Baton Rouge, Louisiana, Etouffee combines red hot fiddle, shufflin' rhythm and blues, and kickin' Southern rock to create an exciting new sound known as Swamp Rock. This is music that will roll you down Bourbon Street or lead you into the darkest swamps, music so eminently danceable almost no one – young or old – can resist.

SKY LITES LASER/DRONES

Friday – 9:50 p.m.

Sky Lites presents a breathtaking Laser Light and Drone Art Show, featuring 75 synchronized drones creating spectacular, moving formations above Bush's Pasture Park.

CHERRY CITY CLOGGERS

Saturday – 1:30 p.m.; Sunday – 10:30 a.m.

Clogging is a type of American folk dance with roots in traditional European dancing, early African-American dance, and traditional Cherokee dance. Cherry City Cloggers consists of men, women, and children ranging in age from 8 to 85.

PAUL BIONDI & FRIENDS

Saturday – 3:00 p.m.

While Paul was still in high school, he performed in jazz bands, studio sessions, and orchestras such as Valley Forge Music Fair. He has backed up such artists as Frank Sinatra, Tony Bennett, Mel Torme, Ella Fitzgerald, Barbra Streisand, Ray Charles, and Lena Horne. He also wrote and played on movie scores and television theme songs, and performed with many famous individual artists, including Jimmy Smith, Bill Medley of The Righteous Brothers, Jack Sheldon, Tex Beneke, Horace Height Jr., The Temptations, the Four Tops, The Drifters, The Platters, The Cadillacs, The Shirelles, and numerous other groups and artists.

DAVE'S KILLER BAND

Saturday – 4:30 p.m.

Dave's Killer Band is a skilled and professional four-piece combo from the mid-central Willamette Valley in Oregon. Driven by guitar, keys, drums, bass and vocals, the band delivers a combination of recognized jazz fusion, rock, pop, world beat, R&B and related musical styles and tempos.

ROCK 'N REWIND

Saturday – 6:30 p.m.

Since forming in 2016, Rock 'n Rewind has evolved into one of the Northwest's most popular party and stage bands, covering beloved hits from the 1960s and 1970s with an emphasis on rock and blues classics from the San Francisco scene and the British invasion. The Eugene-based ensemble features six veteran musicians known for packing dance floors and delighting audiences, from private parties and cozy bars to night clubs and casinos. The band offers up a vast repertoire ranging from the best of The Beatles and The Rolling Stones to the timeless hits of Janis Joplin and Chrissie Hynde, all with a nod to the blues and soul classics of artists like Solomon Burke and John Lee Hooker.

He also covers other artists like country legends Hank Williams, Johnny Cash and Willie Nelson.

WILLAMETTE VALLEY PIPES AND DRUMS

Outside The Box Fundraiser for Artists in Action

One-of-a-kind, quirky and unusual boxes are what Salem Art Fairgoers have come to expect and appreciate at the Outside the Box booth! Mediums and techniques have included painting, carved wood, assemblages, metalwork, fiber arts, glass, tile mosaics, ceramics and more. Some boxes are functional, and some are purely decorative.

Artists in Action (AiA) members and Salem-area artists think 'Outside the Box'. It's a festive showcase of creativity at the Art Fair. Artists graciously donate their box creations, and sale proceeds directly support AiA to help our organization and artist community. <https://artistsinaction.org/events/outside-the-box/>

Artists in Action is a nonprofit 501(c)(3) charitable organization that has successfully operated for over two decades in Salem and nearby communities. Members are a diverse, inclusive group of emerging, mid-career, and established visual artists who share a passion for art. The organization seeks to provide art exhibition opportunities as well as inspiration, education, and public enjoyment in the visual arts. The group meets monthly on the third Tuesday of the month, 6:00 p.m. at the AiA Art Gallery, 444 Ferry St. SE, in downtown Salem.
